Registration requirements:

- Registration for courses implies the acceptance of the internal rules and regulations including the Sanitary Protocol of the Association Philotechnique".
- Depending on the ongoing health situation and in sync with the government's guidelines on public health, the Association Philotechnique may need to "check" government authorised Covid Pass/health pass in order to attend its courses/classes.
- In the event of a public health risk or transport strike, the association may be required to provide one or more online courses.
- I cannot, attend a course in which I am not enrolled under any circumstances.
- To change courses, I must apply in advance to the Association's office and not to the teacher.
- The Association Philotechnique reserves the right to cancel or postpone any course of which staff is inadequate.
- In any case, fees and tuition cannot be refunded - except courses cancelled by the Association.
- The enrollment is strictly personal. It is not accessible to anybody else.

I declare that I have read and accepted the above registration conditions.

I refuse that the Association Philotechnique use any photograph of myself, taken within a group in the context of the activities of the Association - tick the box →
